CLIENT REFERRAL PROGRAM

What is the Client Referral Program?

The Network Q Client Referral Program enables anyone to refer clients to the HQ Client platform and benefit from a referral fee of 15% of fees received for the first 12 months.

15%

Referral Fee
(fees received for first 12 months)

Who is the Referral Program for?

Anyone who wants to refer clients to the HQ Client platform can join the program, no matter your background.

Some examples of referrals:

- Referring friends or family
- Offering professional services to your own business or clients
- Starting a business with HQ client providing some or all of the professional services

Benefits

Income

You can earn by referring casually or build an income stream by referring more clients on an on-going basis.

Resources

Access to a wealth of knowledge and experienced Professionals from HQ Client to service as many clients as you can refer.

Cost

Currently there are no costs to join, however this is subject to change in the future*.

Flexibility

Utilise Network Q as much as you want and at your own pace. Whether you are referring casually or choose to leverage the program to build a business the Referral Program is designed with flexibility at its core.

Examples

Example 1 - Casual referral

Jane uses Network Q for her personal tax services and wants to refer her friend John. She signs up to the Network Q Referral Program and refers him via the referral form on the portal.

John has his taxation services completed by HQ Client and these services total $1000 in the first year.

Jane earns a $150 one-off fee for her referral.

Example 2 - On-going referrals

Kevin runs a successful business where he sees lots of opportunities to refer clients to the HQ Client platform.

Being the entrepreneur that he is, he can see that referring these clients through the Referral Program will help him build a solid income.

After joining the Network Q Referral Program, he initially refers 10 clients. Over the proceeding 12 months, these 10 clients have utilised HQ Client for services totalling $25,000.

Kevin earns $3,750 as a referral fee for these clients.

As Kevin's business grows, he is able to refer clients on an on-going basis enabling him to both earn the 15% referral fee for each client and leverage the professional services offered by HQ Client for his business.
